

EMPOWERING WOMEN LEADERS

EMERGING LEADER PROGRAM

About the Program

Emerging women leaders are equipped with the tools they need for success as new and advancing managers.

Through experiential sessions and group discussions world-renowned faculty instill theory, skills, and experiences that propel women in their professional lives and beyond.

Peer-to-peer networking opportunities both during and after the program foster powerful lifelong connections.

Participants return ready to articulate their leadership vision and carry out career-transforming action plans developed throughout the program.

Who Attends

New managers or functional specialists slated for future leadership roles.

Typical titles: Project Manager; Senior Researcher; Team Lead.

Key Takeaways

During the program, participants hone their abilities to:

- Problem solve and collaborate in complex work environments
- Maximize performance in an on-demand world
- Learn a powerful framework for effective strategy and decision making
- Create a culture of candid feedback to achieve great results
- Invest in personal health and well-being for sustainable career success

execed.smith.edu/programs/emerging-leader-program

DATES: July 19–23, 2020

FEE: $8,900 USD by May 18; $9,200 after May 18

LOCATION: Smith College, Northampton, MA

CONTACT: Meredith Courtney, mcourtney@smith.edu, (413)585-2586

A photograph of a woman with short dark hair, smiling and looking to her left. She is wearing a blue top with a floral pattern and a name tag that says "Candice". She is seated at a table with a white laptop in front of her. The background is a red curtain.

“
Thank you for all of the preparation and hard work that went into making this an amazing week personally and professionally. I have been to several leadership courses over the past years, and I can honestly say I got more from this program than any I have attended before. Thank you!

2019 PARTICIPANT